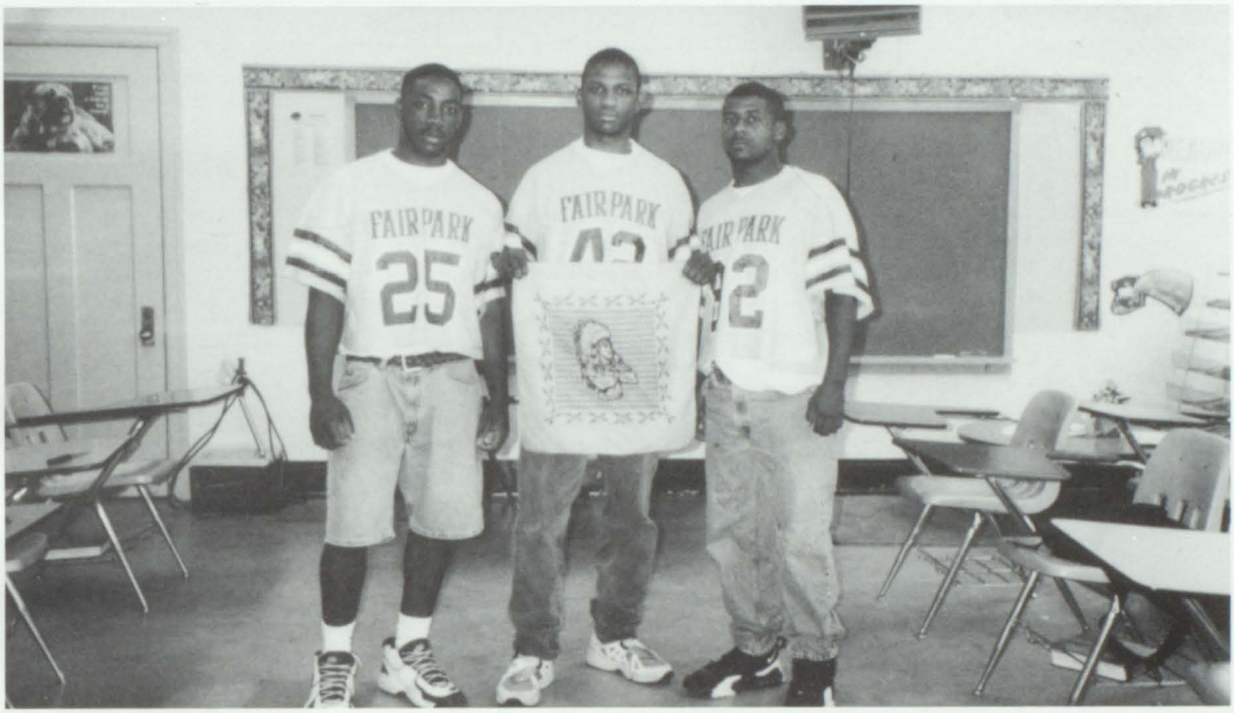
Sequoyah

Fair Park High School

YOU JUST HAD TO BE THERE

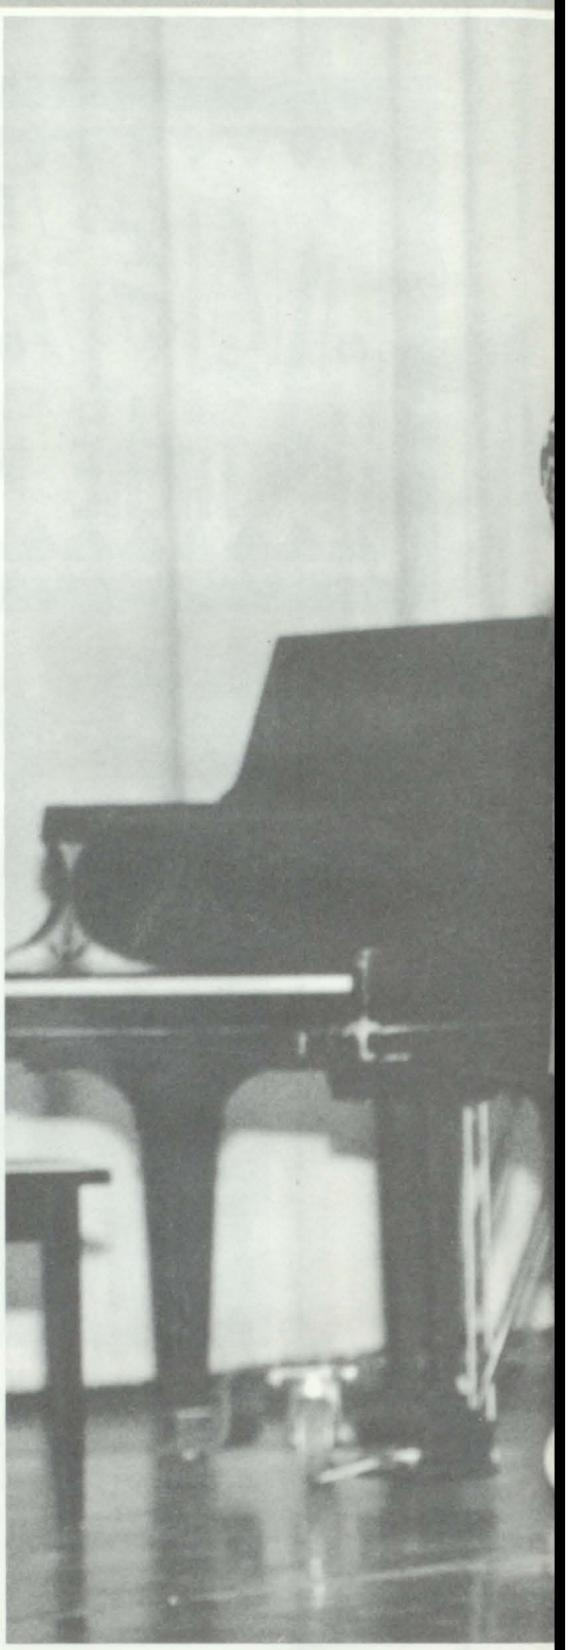
1997 Sequoyah

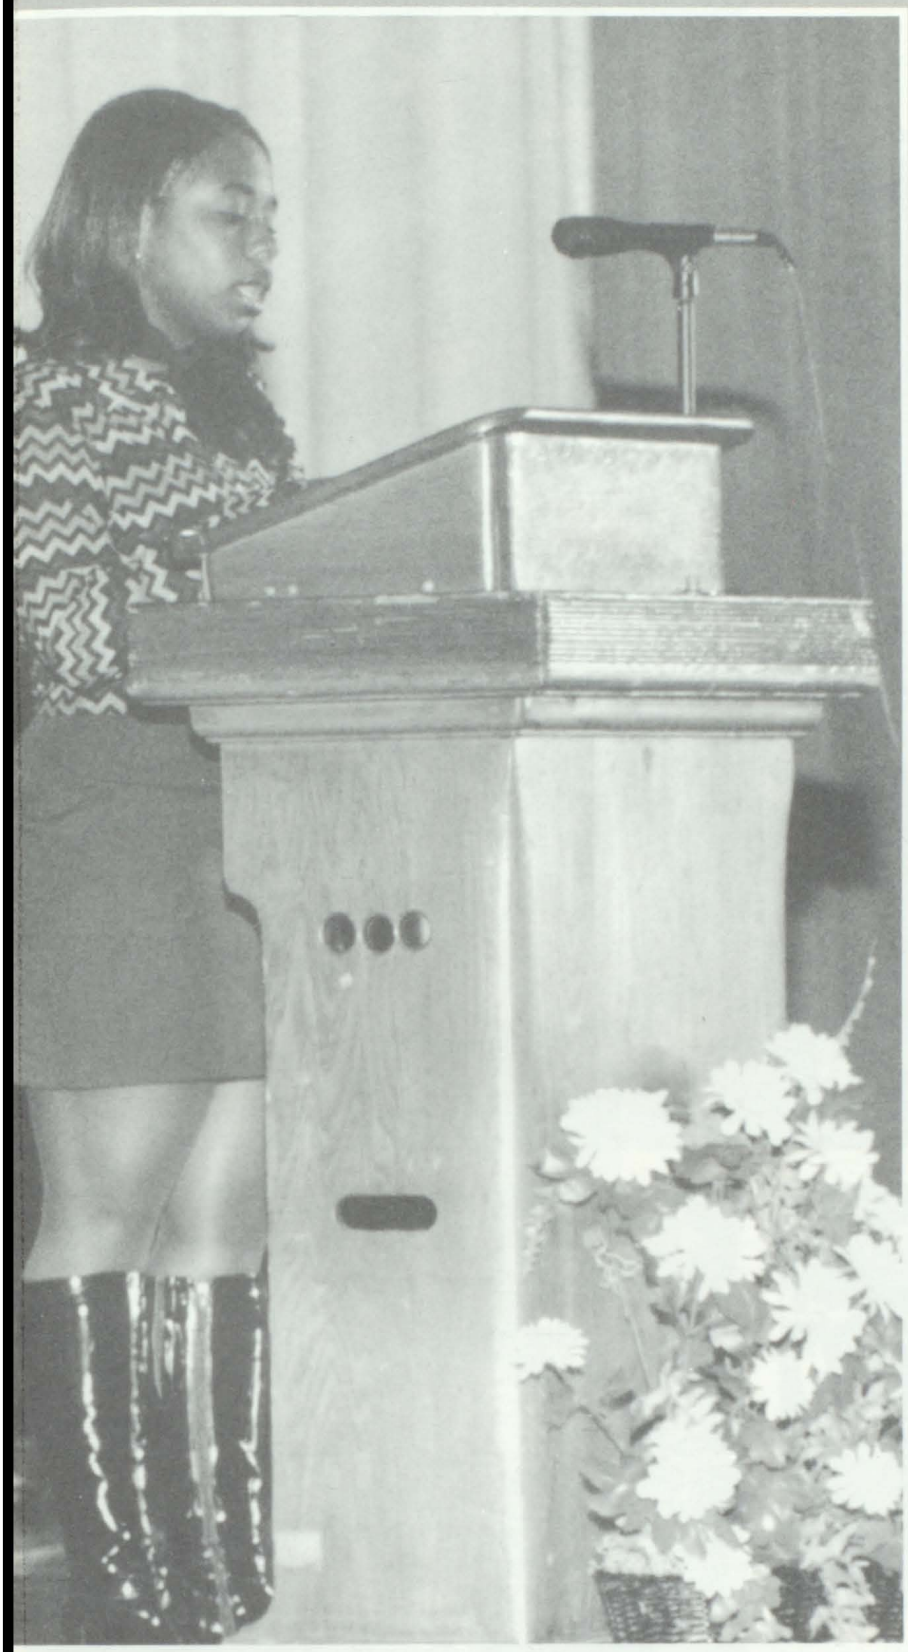


Senior football players James White, Hosie Thomas, and Nolan Taylor display school spirit. Without question, these guys, like the rest of us, love Fair Park.

Without Question

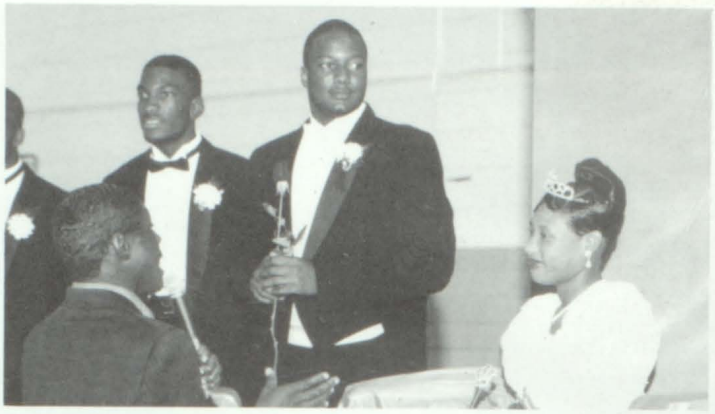
Nothing is more powerful than the love one can have for himself. It brings about a strength and power only one could ever know. This year, lessons have been learned, sometimes forgotten, and yet questioned. Through it all, we've matured and grown. And WITHOUT QUESTION, we made it!





Ebony Parson, a sophomore, expresses her thoughts to the rest of the young ladies in the All-Girl assembly. This assembly showed the positive things about our young ladies here at Fair Park.

Junior, Cedric Blake, shows his school spirit in the pep rally. As you can see, spirit is written all over his face!



Marcus Poples serenades Queen Shemeta Burns. Next to Shemeta is Senior Chris Hayes, her escort. Junior Sidney Coates looks on.

Ladies and Gentlemen ... Miss Shemeta Burns and her Homecoming court stand to be recognized for the '96-97 year.

Major Irvin mesmerizes the crowd by playing his saxophone. Major Irvin is the Senior Army Instructor over JROTC.

As the court waits for the Queen, all eyes are upon the throne. These are just a few of the many sweethearts we had this year.

Junior Reginald Robinson and Freshmen Cortez Alexander roll out the red carpet for the Queen. Cortez is apart of our high-stepping band and Reginald is one of our valued multi-athletes.

There she is, Miss Fair Park, as she waves her wand at her fellow Indians to say thank you for this special occasion. You go girl!!!

The stands are full of friends, students, and family participating in the Homecoming Coronation. The coronation was very beautiful as well as uplifting for everyone.

Sitting pretty are Seniors Kelly Jackson, Baneatha Guillory, Tamara Maiden, and LaKeisha Roberson Besides being apart of Homecoming they are on various auxiliaries in our band!

Senior Gabrielle Peoples is all smiles as the 1996 Band Sweetheart for the Homecoming Coronation. Isn't she lovely?

Whoa! What is the band doing now? Boy does the band get dirty this year when they wait to surprise us with a lil' somethin' for our eyez!

Seniors Timothy Smith and Charles Law look handsome and debonair in their tuxedos. These young men served as escorts for the Homecoming Coronation.

Our queen of Homecoming, Shemeta Burns sits quietly with little Miss Tiranisha at the Homecoming Coronation. Shemeta is a Senior this year as well as captain of the flagline.

Kendrick Monroe, Danielle Walker, Jesse Johnson, Kameelah Rasheed, and Kyla Lewis sit back and relax at the Homecoming Pep Rally. They are on this year's Yearbook Staff.

Our football team is one big family willing and confident about the Homecoming game awaiting for them tonight. Hey, we know what we're doing!

"What's up, What's up, Chris Tomlin expresses he is proud to be an Indian and part of our wonderful band. This year Chris is a sophomore.

Drum major, Brian Wesley directs the band in some high-stepping dancing. The band's performance was well rehearsed as well as performed.

"Cause you're me endless love" ... Marcus Peoples sings to our Queen at the Homecoming Pep Rally. Marcus is a junior this year.

Seniors Roderick Brown and Rochelle Greggs look like Ike and Tina Turner in Mrs. Thompson's class. Thios is 70's day during our Homecoming week.

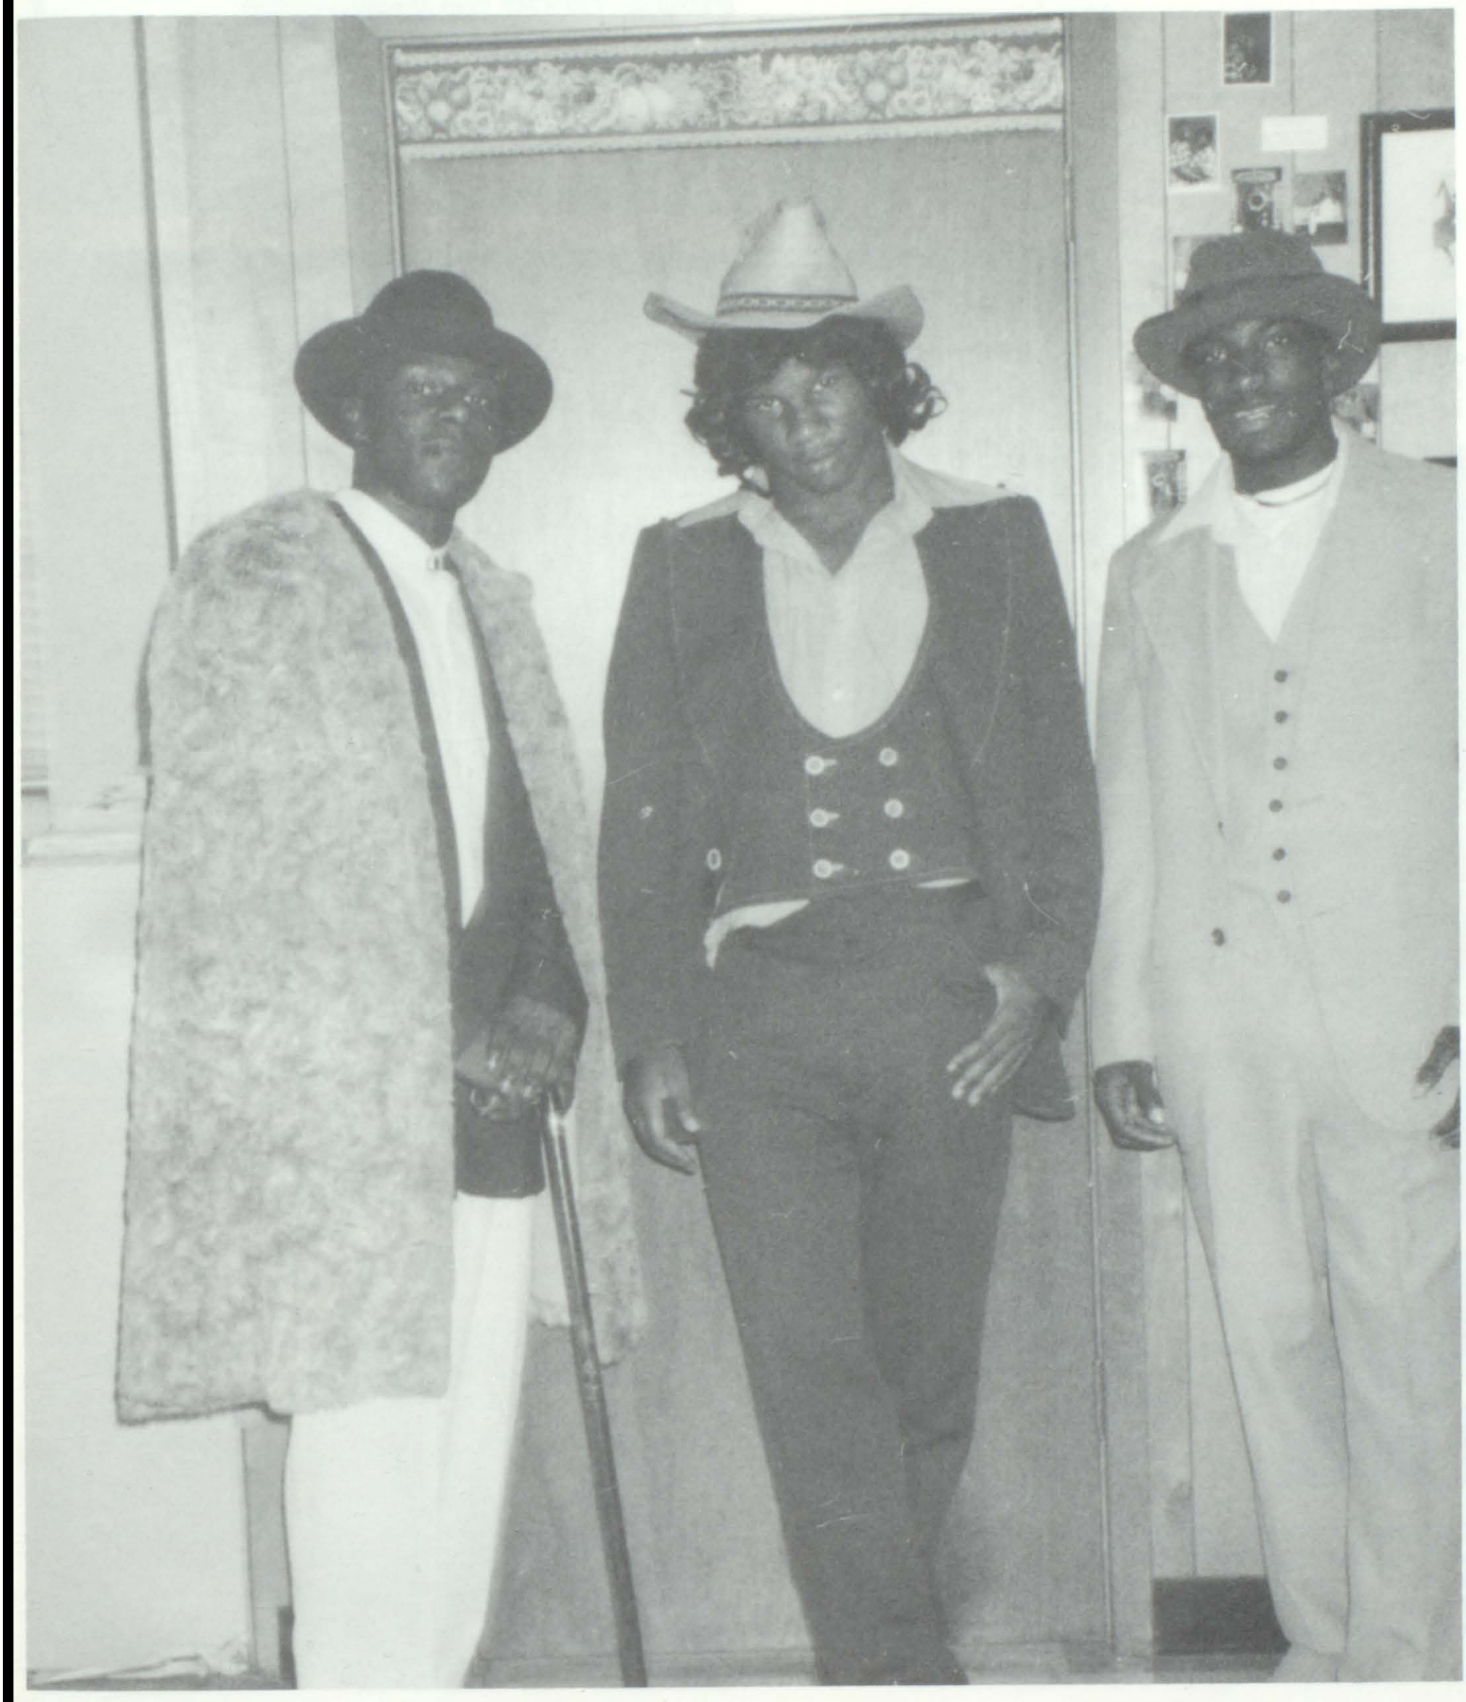
Juniors India Lewis and Napoleon Player are dressed up for 70's day. This was a favorite day during Homecoming week.

Zarico Wynadon, a junior at Fair Park is sporting his 'seventies' outfit. Don't you just love those red and white shoes?

Look out Seventies Girl!!! Sophomore Miss Ebony Parsons is expressing her Indian pride during our famous Homecoming week. Go Foxy Brown!!!

LaToisher Richardson shows her outfit for seventies day. LaToisher is a Senior at Fair Park.

Look at these young men styling and profiling in their three piece suits on seventies day. This year's retro activity attracted a lot of participants.

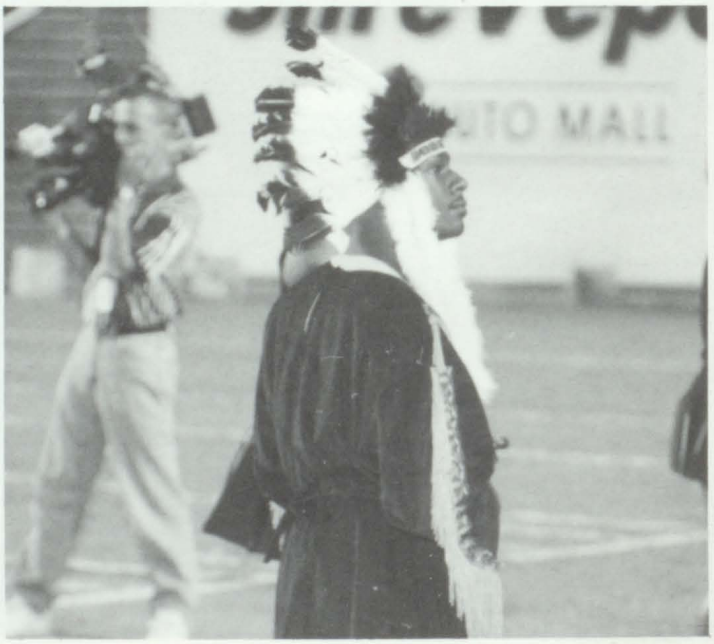


Here we come, ready and excited to take the field to win Homecoming night against the Raiders.

It's about time the show's over as the FlagLine leaves the field. They performed well with the rest of the band.

Kantrese Williams is carrying on our teams as she looks carefully at the scoreboard to see if we got those extra points. She is our top Lady Indian this year.

Sophomore Oulayvan Senabandith and her Freshmen friends Angela Causey, Kim Ware, and Jennifer Jones are having a good time at one of our pep rallies.



ZaRico Wyandon thinks of a dance to move the Indians in the spirit. You go head now!

Juniors Cedric Blake, Rico Jones, ZaRico Wyandon, and Burdette Jones are co-ed cheerleaders for Homecoming. These guys are having a gay o' time as well as giving the crowd some laughs.

Ms. Johnson and Ms. Howard watch as the band performs during Homecoming. Jared Gipson, one of the four drum majors leads the band as they get down!

Smile for the camera, Sgt. Rochell shows her school spirit with a Fair Park shaker in her hand. She is on her way to the Homecoming pep rally to make sure if things are under control.

Mr. Cooper keeps his cool as he takes care of things for the Homecoming Coronation. Mr. Cooper is assistant principal and does a great job here at Fair Park.

Here in position are the lovely ladies of pep squad. The captain is Sabrina Johnson and the co-captain is Judy Mosley.

Head coach Husher Calhoun looks pleased as the Indians use the strategy they've been taught to win the game.

Come on boys let's score again! Let's make some smart moves for our Homecoming evening.

The head lady in charge presents Senior Chris Hayes' ring on in last year's ring ceremony. Congratulations!

Mr. Cooper presents Kelvin Harrison with his class ring. Kelvin is a strong and active member of our JROTC program.

Mrs. Brooks and Mr. Cooper presents Marcus Qualls with his class ring. This was the special day for juniors last year.

Seniors Angela Willis, Kevin Thomas, and Fatari Thomas sport their rings in the ceremony. Doesn't that gold look nice?

Seniors Anthony Chester, Shemeta Burns, Fatari Thomas, and Tasha Simpson are showing off their class rings. They received this precious memory in last year's ring ceremony.

Mrs. Brooks presents Tasha Simpson with her class ring. This was theassembly for the class of 1997 receive their rings.

Juniors Amber Parker, Shemika Gardner, and Syreeta Bowman wait for their buses after a day of hard work. These girls are in the Medical Career Magnet Program.

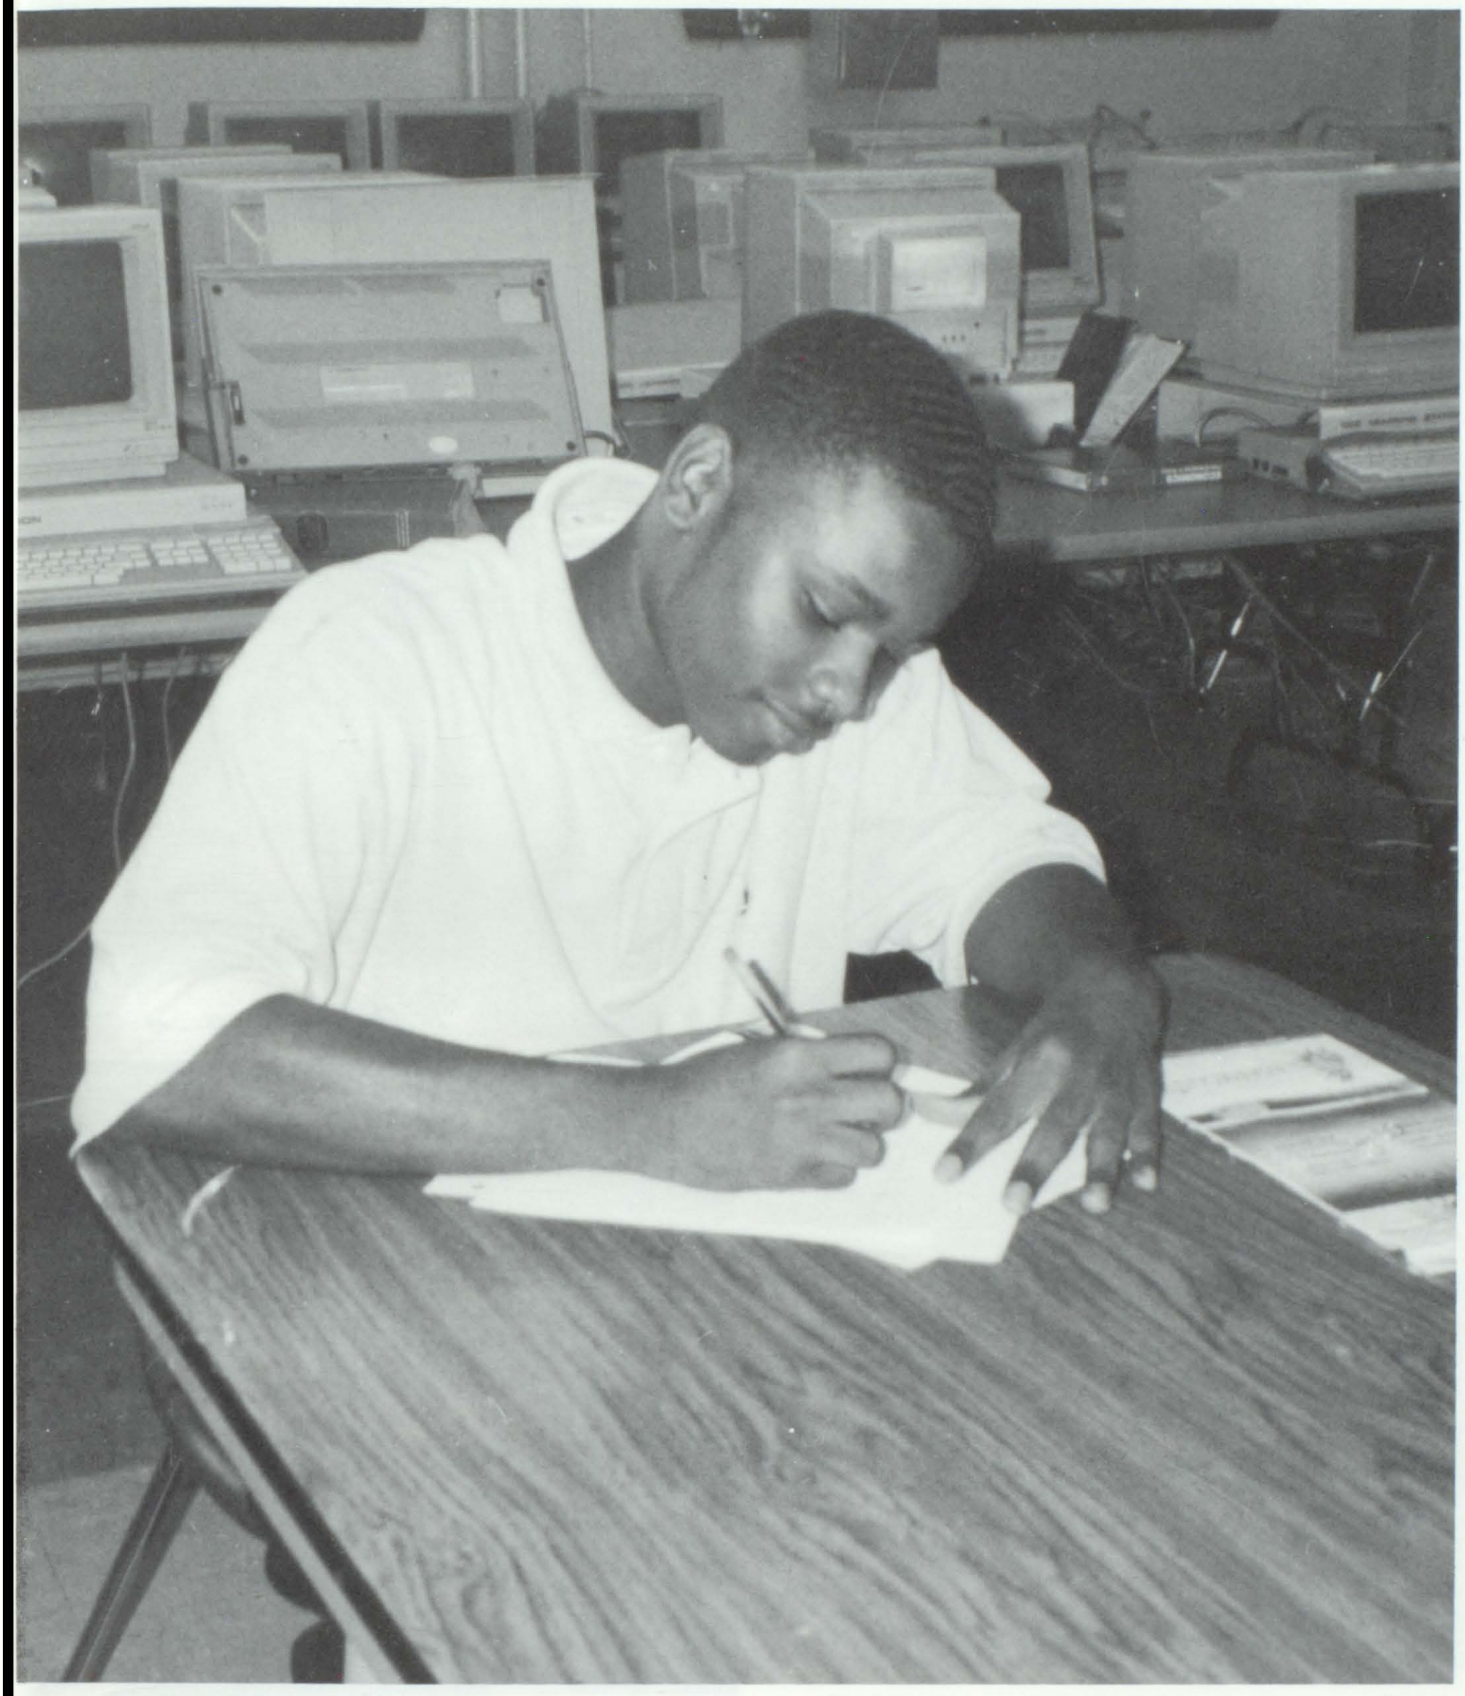
April Kinchen is paying close attention to Mrs. Lynch. She is talking about Fine Arts Survey.

Marcus Poples stands in front of our school's mascot, the Big Indian. Students in Wood Technology. Marcus is a junior this year.

Senior Tremaine Thomas has a lot of spirit and love for Fair Park. His fresh cut shows he has all the spirit.

Senior Tasha Simpson takes time out to smile for the camera. She shows her school spirit with her face painted black and gold.

Senior Marcus Vinson is busy doing his assignment. It's very important to all Fair Park students that they get their work done.



Ebony Parson and India Lewis pose for the camera while standing in the gym. They are members of the swirlin' and twirlin' Fair Park Majorettes. They are dressed alike for twin day.

Alissa Williams, a cheerleader here at F.P. is walking down the hall. Wherever you see Alissa, you'll always see her beautiful smile.

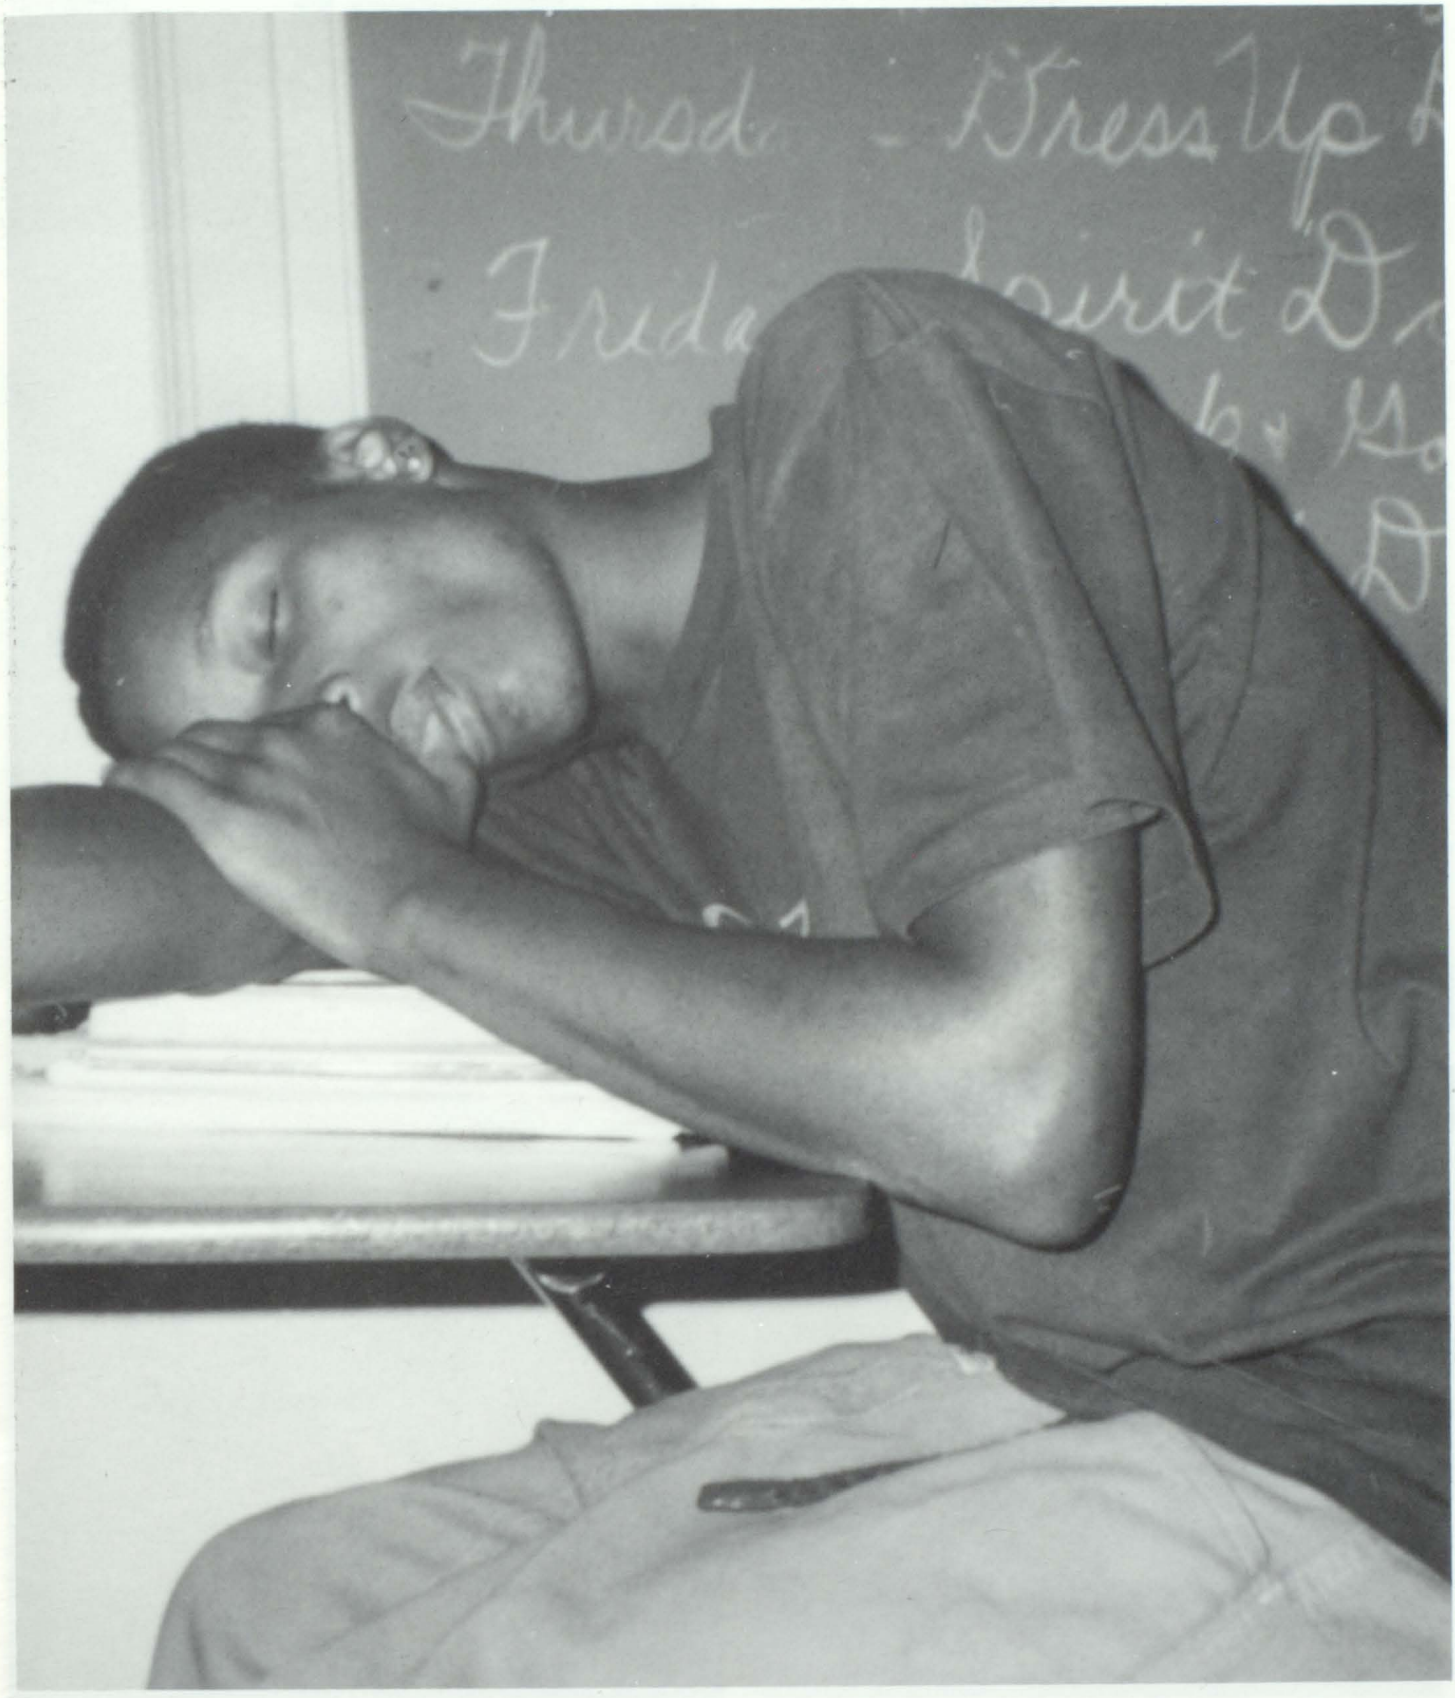
"Kick off your shoes and relax your feet ..." is exactly what Junior Marilyn Claiborne is doing. She is helping with the practice of the Homecoming Coronation. Back to work!

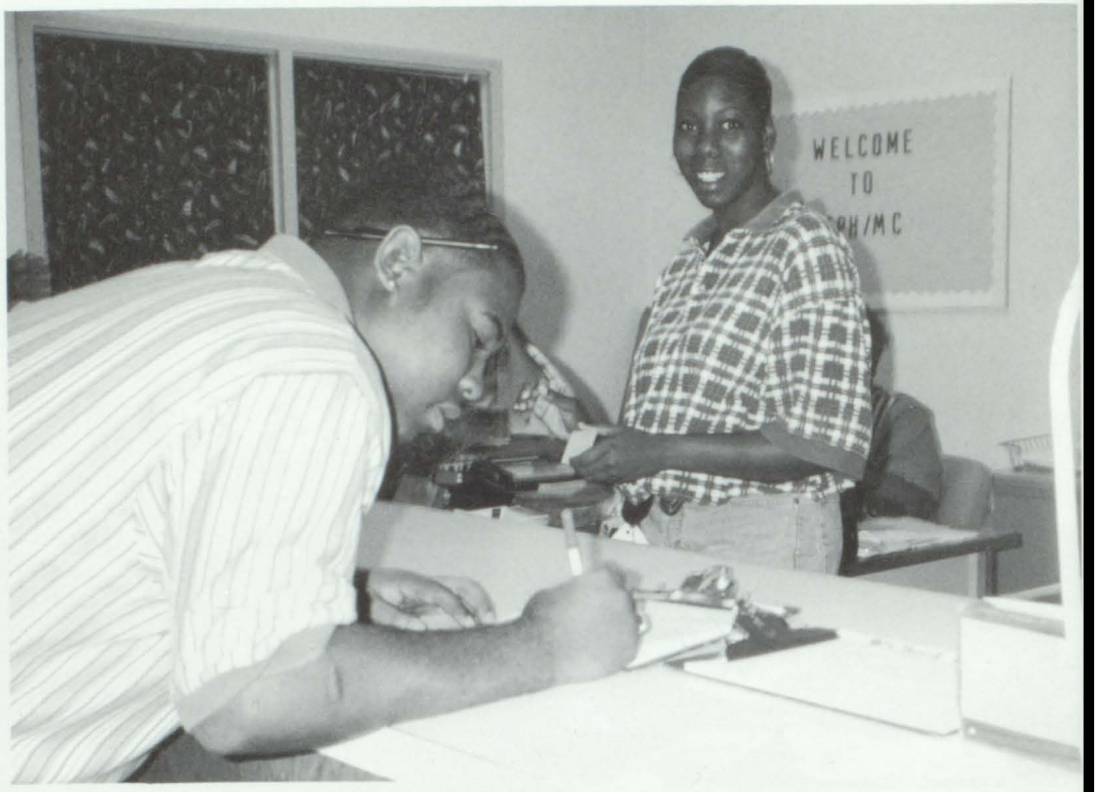
Football players Sidney Coates, James White, and Reginald Robinson sit and chat about tonight's game. They are motivated and dedicated, give them a hand!!

Rock-a-bye baby .. Jeremy Burns, a sophomore finds himself wrapped in sweet dreams and drool. Aw, we couldn't resist a student enjoying a nice nap, but school is not for sleep.



Mr. G. White, Jesse Johnson, DeCarlo Gray, Michelle Blue, and Marcus Peoples are posing by the fine works of art. Mr. White is proud of his students and their work.

Robert Bogan checks in while Debra Robinson waits patiently for him to finish and gives him a Hall pass.



Look at Alfred Cole style his dressy attire on dress up day during Homecoming week. Alfred is on our winning football team.

Senior Tiffany Maynard is prepared for school, while exchange from one class to another. Tiffany is a COE student.

Senior Suzette Williams smiles for our camera after a long day of Medical Career. She attends Caddo Magnet High.

Senior Kyla Lewis and Junior Omesha Adams are looking over yearbook prices. Kyla is a staff member.

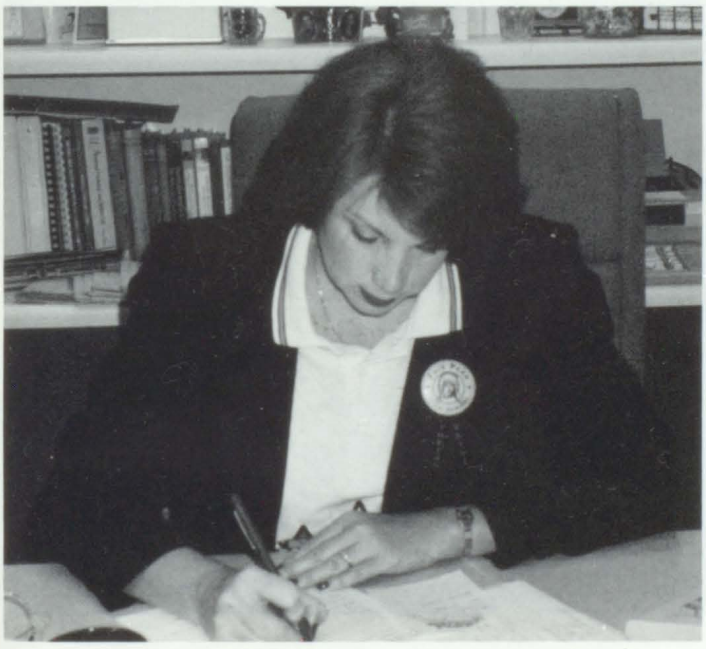
Mrs. Lee, a counselor, looks over LEAP information. LEAP is an exit exam required for graduation in Louisiana.

Mrs. Wilkins, 12th grade counselor, works to make sure seniors take the right courses to prepare for graduation. This is her first year at Fair Park, and we are glad she's here.



Taking care of business, Mrs. Gary, a counselor, is a new face on the reservation. She can be seen giving 100% every minute of every hour.

Mrs. Terry reaches to answer the phone as she checks files in the computer. As our registrar, she makes sure students' records are input correctly.

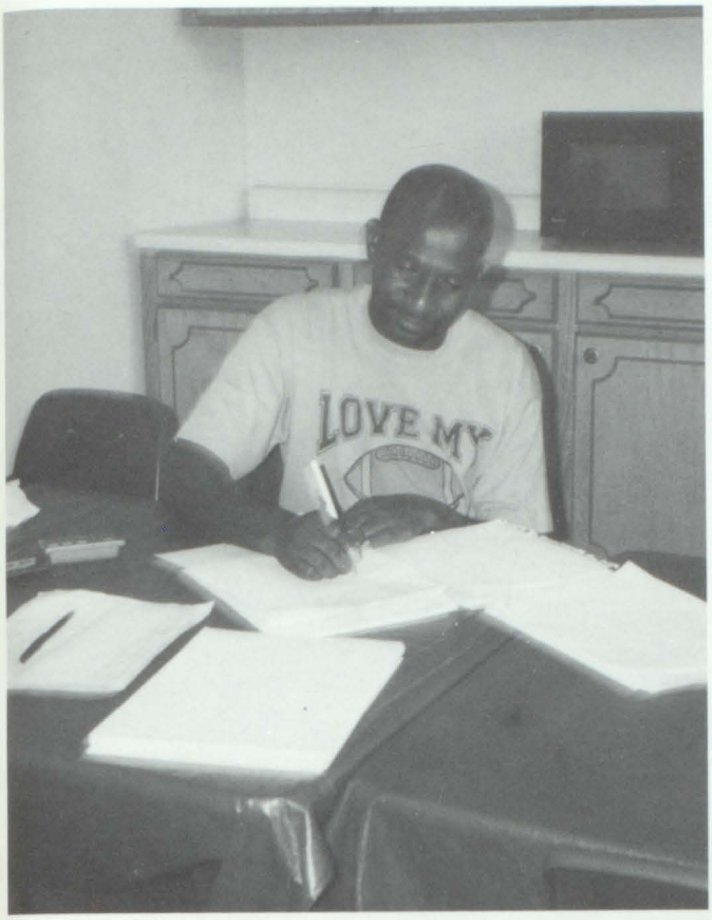
Ms. McIntyre and Ms. Johnson show their Indian spirit during Homecoming. They assist the Special Education department by working as aides.

Ms. McBride explains the grammar assignments she wants her students to complete. She shows she has school spirit with her Indian T-shirt.

Mrs. Griffith shows off her Reservation Day shirt. These shirts were sold to help support the school.

The faculty is showing us that they can have fun, too! During Homecoming, everyone is hyped up - even the teachers and staff members.

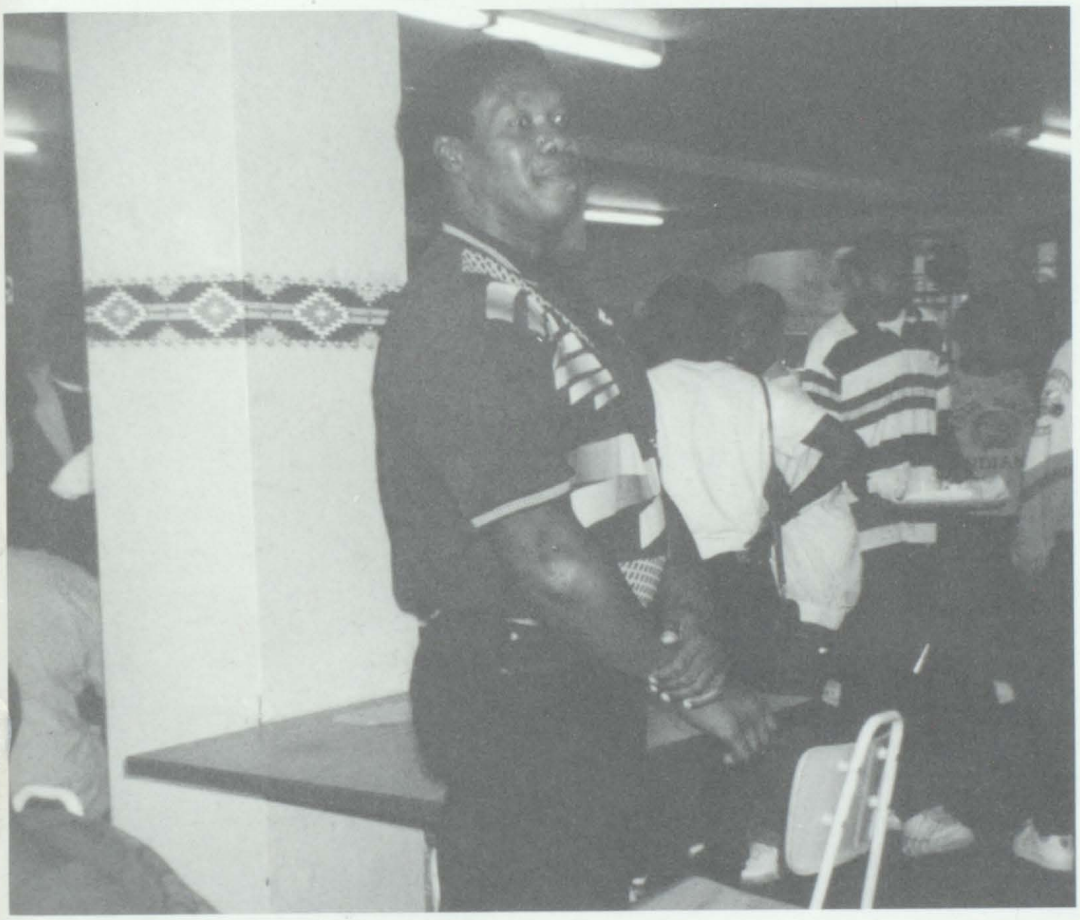
Ms. Davis pins up football stats to her bulletin board. colorful, decorated bulletin boards are a common site at Fair Park.

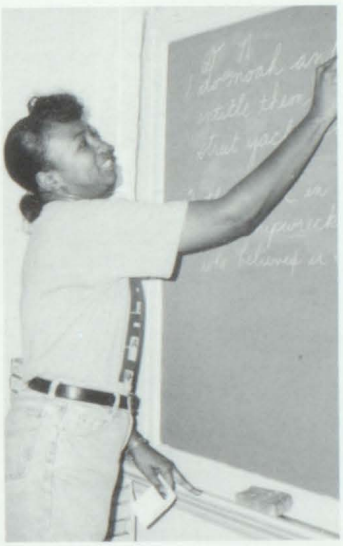


Mr. Williams uses his planning period to grade some math papers. A well-respected teacher, Mr. Williams always go the extra mile.

Mr. Batiste, a journalism and English instructor, shows his school pride with his T-shirt and Fair Park towel.

Ms. Pierre discusses her students' assignment with a smile and a little patience. Ms. Pierre is a French as well as English teacher this year.

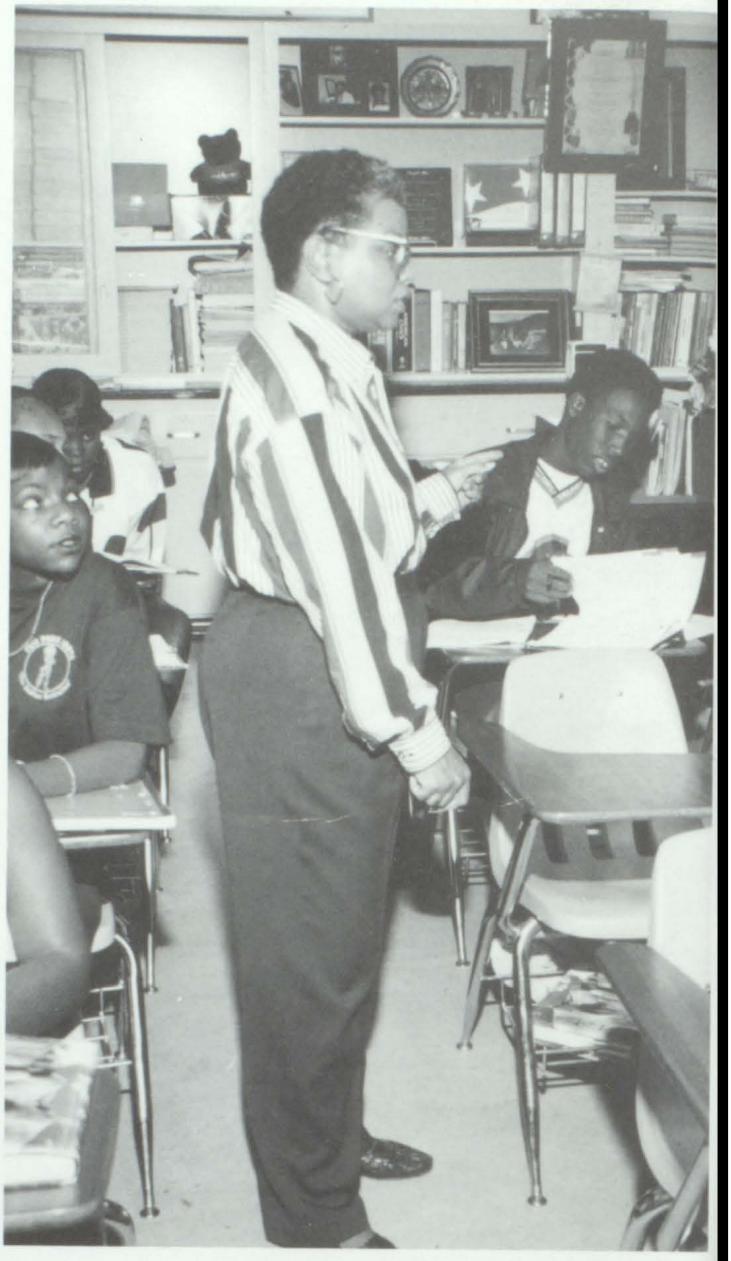




Coach Calhoun is looking around for trouble. Monitoring the students in the cafeteria, he makes sure they move in an orderly fashion.

LOOK AND LEARN!
Mrs. Clark, a very inspiring English teacher, corrects the Daily Oral Language as the students follow along. D.O.L.'s help students with various skills in language arts.

Mrs. Maxile gives a few pointers to her students. All the students love Mrs. Maxile. She has made a difference in many lives.

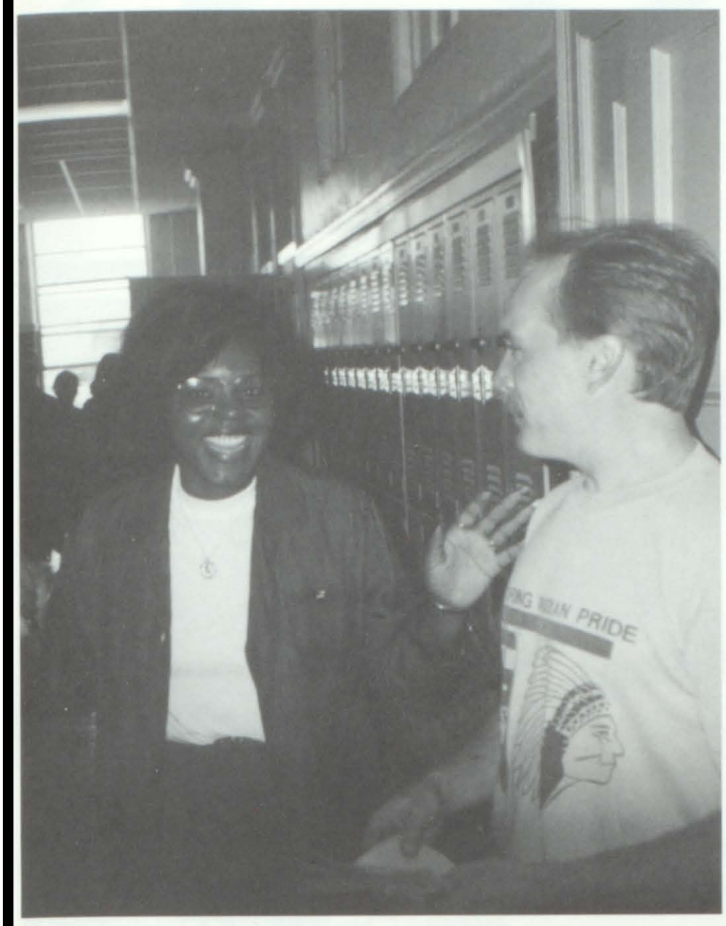


Ms. Verdia Williams, English instructor, assists her students on an assignment. A truly dedicated teacher, Ms. Williams is a favorite among students.

During practice, Mr. White directs the band. Following the motto "D.P.O.," which stands for discipline, pride, and organization, the band has continued to be outstanding.

Discussing Stephanie Matthew's assignment, Mrs. Wortman patiently listens to her explanations. Mrs. Wortman teaches human anatomy in our Medical Careers program.

Ms. Washington helps this student with math problems, as others continue to work.



Ms. Gant shares inspiring news with Mr. Willis. Ms. Gant is a geometry teacher and Mr. Willis teaches algebra.

Offering a helping hand, Mrs. Lake marks the McBee cards in the attendance office. Mrs. Lake serves as an aide in the special education department.

Awaiting the kickoff of the game, Mr. Spearman, Ms. Washington, Mr. Hall, and Ms. Hall share their excitement and anticipation of another win. We played the Springhill Lumberjacks that night.

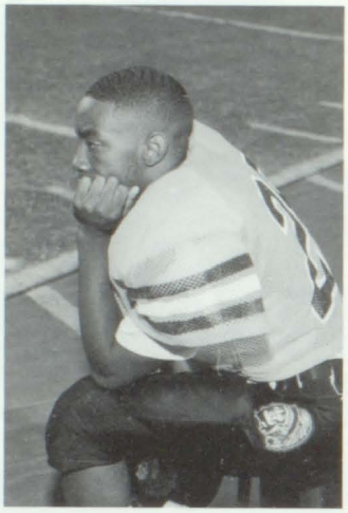
Fair Park High School Indians starting line up is being introduced in the pep rally. Aren't they lovely.

In the mist of cold, rainy weather our Indians battled it out with the Southwood Cowboys. Scalp those Cowboys.

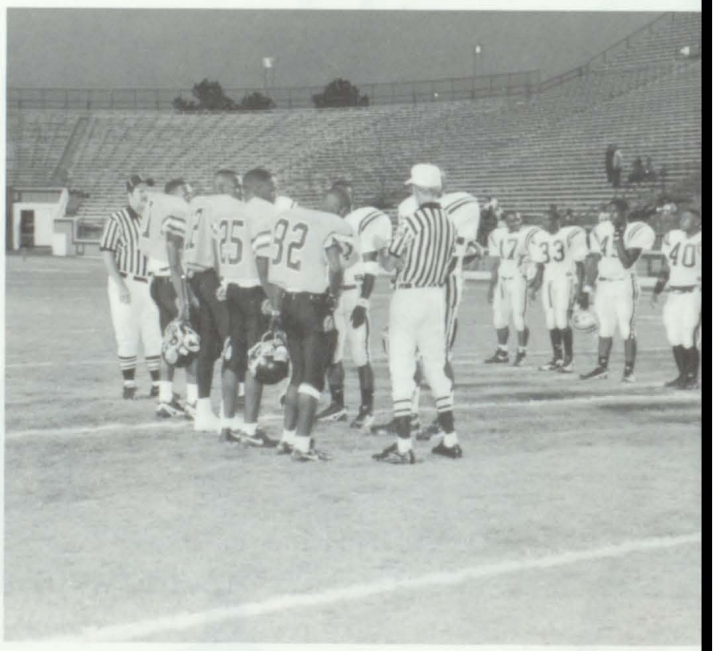
Defense! Is the name of the game. Our boys not only know the game there VERY good at what they do.



Hum I wonder if my mother cooked something good for me tonight because after this game I'll be good and hungry.

Coach Husher Calhoun is the most outstanding football coach. Not only a football coach, but a Sociology and Psychology teacher.

Junior Rico Jones is trying to pass the before someone from Southwood team grabs him tight for a tackle.



When The Football Players Take The Field
Everyone Tends To Forget The Most Important Team Members.

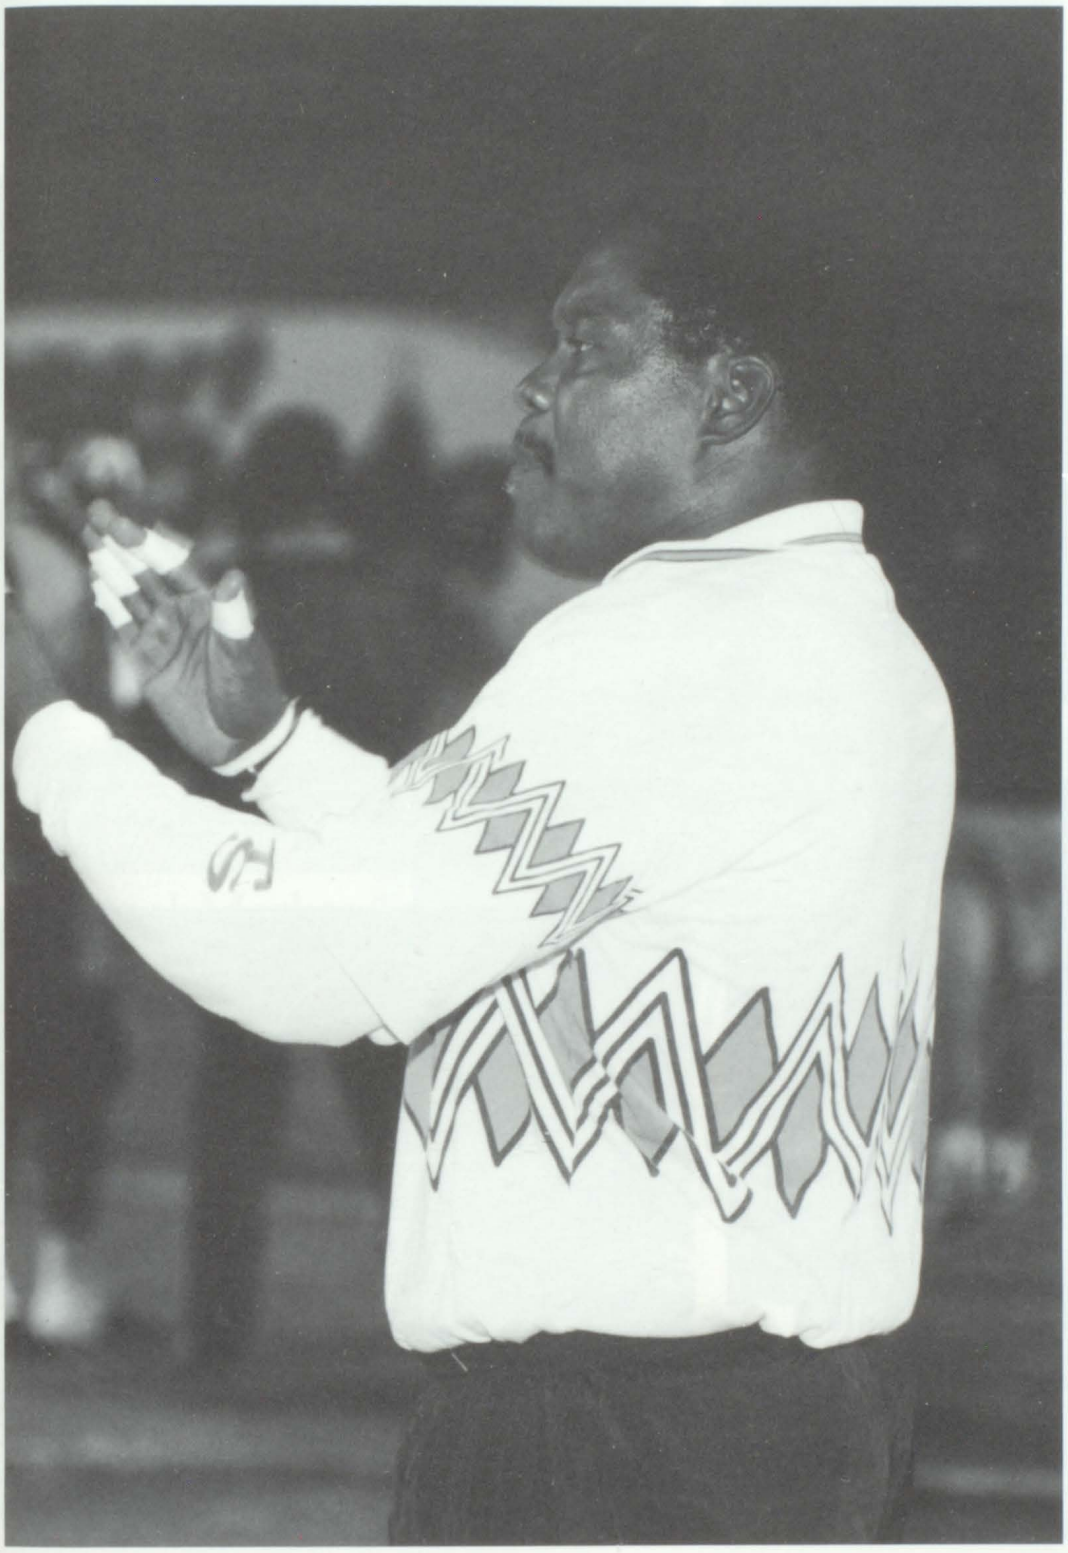
Behind The Scenes Heroes



Coach Calhoun sends in the defensive signals to squash Huntington! He is the head football coach.

Coach Levy asks for help from the referees as Reginald Robinson looks on. Coach Levy is an outstanding math teacher.

Coach Thrash is trying to figure out what is going on. He is not only a football coach he's the head basketball girls coach.

After our victory over the Booker T. Washington High School Lions in the Lions Den, each team show good sportsmanship.

Coach Calhoun gives his usual pre-game speech attributed to our football players. The football team and coaches dedicated and committed to make our team #1. Way to go!!!!!

Junior Sidney Coates runs for a touchdown when Indians back him up at his side. Go "Cocoa" GO!

Senior James White is ready to get back in the game for the last few plays. He studies the game very hard.

Indians where are you? Quarterback Tony Webb is looking for a good opening to pass the ball.

Seniors Nolan Taylor #82, James White #25, Tony Webb #12, and Rodrick Brown #21 are waiting to see who gets the ball first in the coin toss to start the Homecoming game.

Look Out! Senior Tony Webb is ready to throw an outstanding touchdown for the Indians family.

Junior Sidney Coates punts the ball for the other team to receive it. Sidney is a very valuable player to our team.

This player tackles a Southwood Cowboy using a bearhug. Lynn Armstrong and Billy "B.J." Black look on.

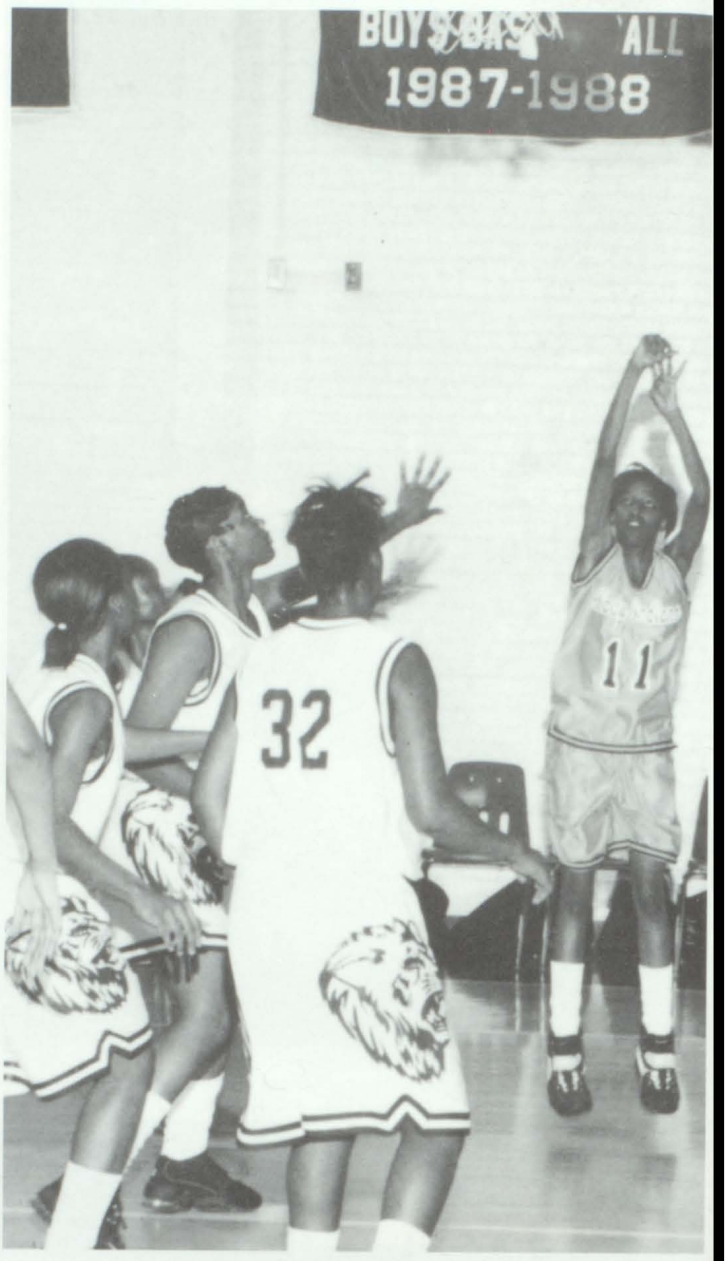
WINS	LOSSES
5	5

Reginald Roberson sprints down the field for the touchdown against Springhill. The season ended in an even 5 in 5. We have an outstanding football team which we gladly appreciate their unending sacrifice and dedication.

Danielle Walker, a sophomore tries her best to make the two pointer for the Indians against the Lady Lions.

Shonda Kennedy, a senior, aims, shoots, and scores the three pointer against the B.T.W. Lady Lions, "Shonda K" is one of our many valuable girl players on the court.

Girls basketball coach, Ms. Coughlin shows the girls some moves. She is one of the great coaches who makes a difference.



Angela Hall, a senior is looking around for a little back up help. she know she has to think strategy to score a couple of points.

Kashima Raphiel, a junior looks for an open to pass the ball. All the girls on our basketball team should be applauded for their dedication.

Coach Thrash talks to Freshman Danesha Anderson about fouling. "Keep your hands up."

Angela Hall struggles for the ball to sweep away and make a basket.

Junior Miriam Claiborne shoots for two points in the Fair Park vs. Southwood game. Amy gives it all on and off the court.

Amanda Cooksey, a junior shoots from the free throw line. Besides playing basketball, Amy has been a cheerleader for two years.

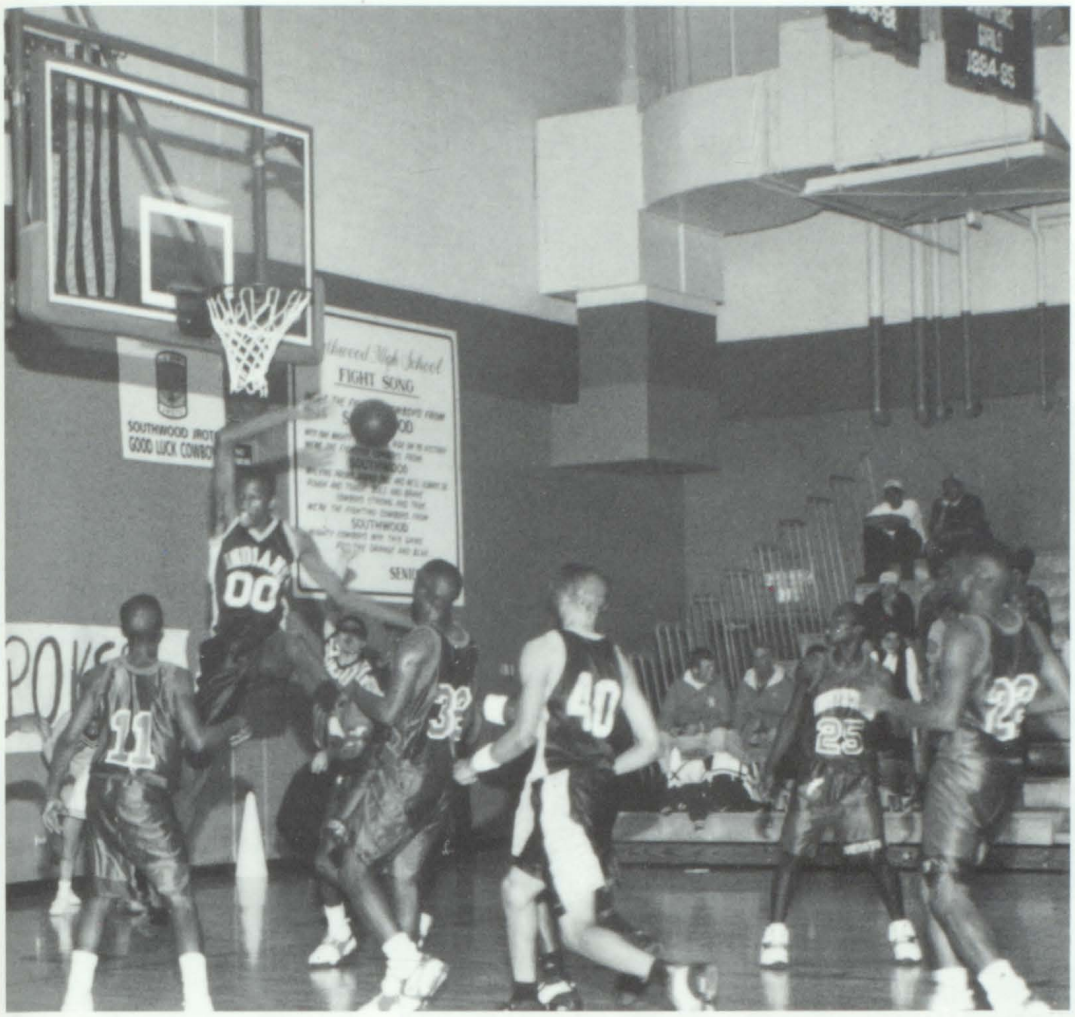
Junior Miriam Claiborne lets the ball go as she goes up for the three pointer. She plays good offense she is determined to score for the Lady Indians.

Playin' It Cool

Coach Preston talks strategy to Senior Billy Black. B.J. not only is a great basketball player he is a wonderful friend to everyone.

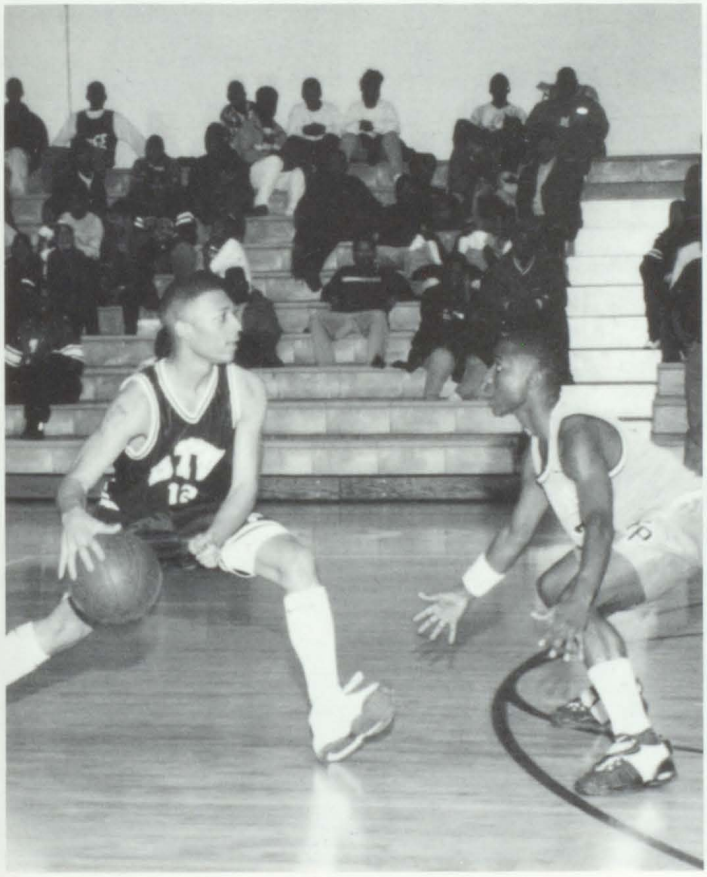
Swoosh! Henery "Tweety" Wright is all over the place as he leaps into the air to make a shot. He is one of this years top players.

Up, up, and away as Junior Stromile Swift and Burdette Jones play hard defense against the Cowboys. Let's get that ball.



Wow! look at junior Stromile Swift come down from dunking on Southwood. Stromile is 6'9".

There's Burdette Jones shooting the ball over a Southwood player. Burdette is a junior on the varsity basketball team.



Bring it on as senior Henry "Tweety" Wright plays strong defense. The Indians Bring much pain when playing this game.

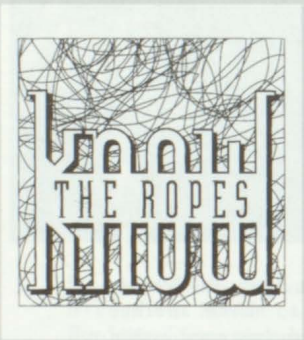
He's at it again. Burdette is battling to make another shot. He makes good assists as a Fair Park player.

Basketball

Fair Park Junior Reginald Roberson and Senior Henery Wright are anxious for the rebound to keep that scoring advantage and the Indians winning.

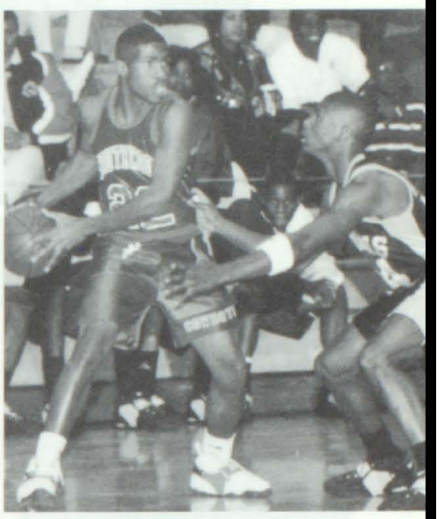
The Fair Park basketball team take a time-out during the Booker T. Washington game as they prepare for another win.

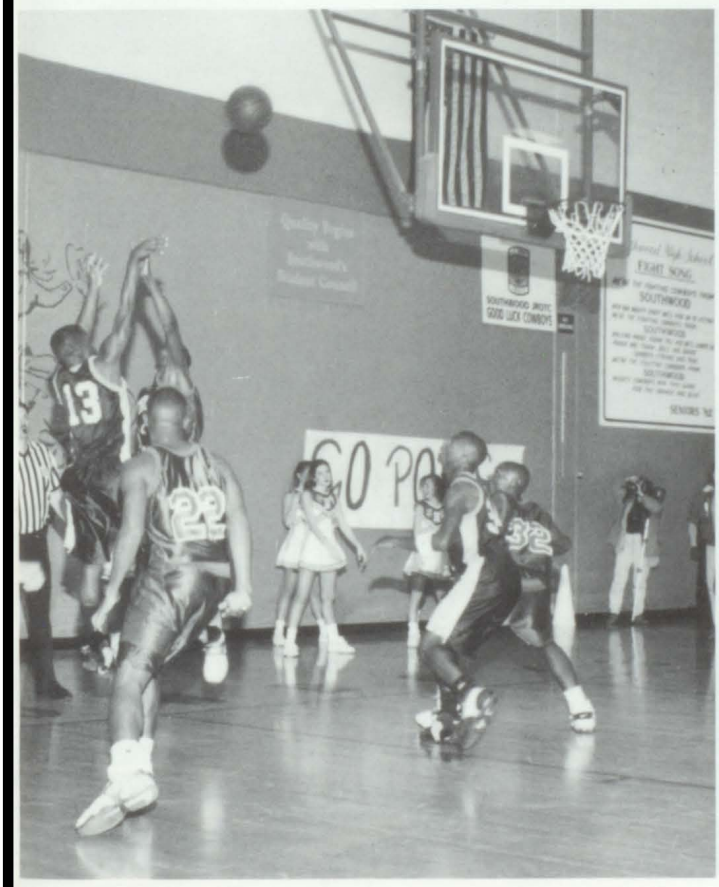
Senior Henry "Tweety" Wright knows basketball. He's short, cute, and sweet, everyone loves Tweety.



Tracy Burns is blocking a BTW player's shot. Tracy is one of the senior varsity basketball players.

Reginald Roberson is playing hard defense on this Southwood player. Coach Preston will be very impressed with this Junior.





Henry Wright is shooting one of his famous shots. Henry Wright is Senior this year.

Stromile Swift is keeping his eye on the ball. He is one of our top players. Way to go Stro.

Making sure they win this race are Hosie Thomas and Melvin Porter. The relay race is a race where teamwork and consistency plays an important role.

Fair Park High School Track Team is the best Track Team around. This is the best Track Team we ever had.

Rushing to the Finish Line, Junior Rico Jones gives it his all. Fair Park is guaranteed a win for this event.

Just one more to go, This Track Team member head's to the crowd defeating Green Oaks and Byrd to take First Place.

Bobby Boone, showing agility and strength sprints over this hurdle in a track competition Bobby is a sophomore.

Reginald Robinson strides for the goal to bring home another victory for the black and gold. Robinson is a junior this year with great athletic skills.

James White stretches it out as he participates in the long jump. Besides being apart of track. James is on the varsity football team.

Nicole Lindsey Get's ready to run the 400 meter sprint for the Fair Park Lady Indian Track Team. Nicole is a junior this year with big hopes and dreams.

This picture shows the award winning Tae Kon Doe Team. The team consist of: Kelvin Harrison, Gerome Henderson, Terrance Bogan, Shayla Persley, Matthew Bailey, Terrance Washington, Antonio Stafford, Kevin Thomas, and Jamone Marshall with Instructor Maj I. Irvin.

Kevin Thomas, a Senior also demonstrates a front snap kick. Hey, watch it!

Sophomore Shayla Persley demonstrates the use of nunchakus. She is also on the Tae Kwon Doe team, alson.

The Yearbook Staff would like to thank everyone who supported us. Thanks to those who purchased a yearbook, and thanks to those who didn't but are reading this anyway. Thanks to our teachers who understood that it takes time to complete a yearbook. Thank you for letting us come into your classes to take pictures and sell yearbooks. We are ever so grateful to those who helped sell candy, attend our dances, and participated in functions we sponsored. To Scott Solice photography thanks for your patience and photographs. We appreciate all of our sponsors who appear in our advertising section and special thanks go to Dan Walls of County Market, and former football star and graduate of Fair Park Wendell Davis. (And if we forgot to name anyone, charge it to our heads and not our hearts).
